

- Hi Sam! Nice to see you. I thought that you went to Ireland.

- Hi Stella! Nice to see you too. I'm going to Ireland next week. I'm going to visit the capital city Dublin. For last few weeks I have been reading and learning all about Ireland. Did you know that Ireland is also known as "Emerald Isle" because most of the land has green grass, plants and forests. The national holiday of Ireland is the 17th of March called Saint Patrick's Day but St. Patrick wasn't Irish, he was Welsh.

- Wow, that's interesting. Once at school we were learning Irish dancing, it was fun. - I also read that Halloween, as we know it today, originates from the ancient Celtic festival. I'm so excited! I cannot wait to go.

- Have a great trip and please send me some photos of Ireland. I will see you when you get back.

- See you soon.
